SIR,

In forwarding herewith copy of letter No.ROC 1733 dated 12-5-22 received from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, requesting this office to arrange to transfer the Deposit of Rs 1500 made by Chikka Hanumanthappa of Hosakurubarahalli in Goribidnur Taluk to the credit of the Mysore Bank for investment in the 6½% State Loan Bonds, I have the honor to state that the amount has already been deposited under Charitable Endowment Rules in Goribidnur Taluk Treasury so far back as 4th August 1919 and duly credited to the head "Endowments" for charitable and other purposes."

This office merely requested the Deputy Commissioner to communicate the orders of Government accepting the deposit under the Charitable Endowment Rules and forward the necessary documents. I therefo request I may be informed if Government have, as a special case, permitted the deposit made to be withdrawn and transferred to the Mysore Bank for investment in the 6½% State Loan and retransfer of the bond

In para 3 of his letter no. oc 1733 of 19-20 of 12-12-21 the D.C. Kolar stated that Chik Hanumanthaiyappa deposited Rs 1500/- so far back as 4th August 1919 ~~in the Sporibidnur Taluk Treasury~~ and which was credited to the Treasury under the orders of the Amildar on his own authority; and requested sanction for accepting it under the Charitable Endowt Rules

2 After further correspondence in the matter, the D.C was requested to arrange with the Comptr for the transfr of the amount to the Mysore Bank for its investment in the 6½% Loan and intimate to of the action taken -

3 The Comptr in his present letter, states that the amount was deposited under the Charitable Endowment Rules in the Sporibidnur Taluk Treasury on 4th Augt 19 and only credited to the head "Endowments for Charitable and other purposes".

4. The point now for consideration is whether crediting the amount to the head "Endowments etc" under the orders of the Amildar is equal to accepting the deposit by Govt under the Charitable Endowment R

whether separate orders of Govt in the matter is not necessary. As no orders of Govt accepting the deposit has yet issued, it is a point for consideration whether the amount cannot be transferred to the loan After issue of orders by Govt, there are no instances in the amounts have been withdrawn. The withdrawal of the amount in the present case does not become special, as stated by the Compte -

Subject for orders 5 - Acceptance of an Amt by the Auditor does not amt to Govt accepting the same under the Ch: Sndt rules. The Compte may be asked to arrange for the Amt being ~~accepted~~ returned to the Govt ~~under intimation to the Compte to that effect~~
~~by Govt for the next order being passed.~~

Letter no. 588/Sl. & 22-7-22

States that if the deposit of Rs 1500/- made by Chikka Hanumantharayappa on 4.8.19 is not treated as an endowt., the amount bears no interest from the date of deposit to the date of withdrawal and requests to be informed if that is the intention of Govt.

10. It is nearly three years since the deposit was made into the Treasury by Chikka Hanumantharayappa and to deny him interest at the Savings Bank rate for this period, may be very hard.

11. As the amount was credited into the Treasury, with a view to have it under the Charitable Endowt. account, and was, therefore, not brought under the Savings Bank account, the Comptr states that the amount will bear no interest.

12. ✗ In case the amount is to be withdrawn for being invested in the State Loan, as intimated to the Comptr in our letter no. 99/Mis 440-21-9 & 12-7-22 their payment of interest

A reminder petn read from Chikka Hanumantharayappa for payment of interest at an early date is also put up -
